

The 4th Day of May
Holy Nun-Martyr Pelagía.

Evening Service

At “Lord, I call...,” 3 Stikhera, in Tone 2: *To the melody, “When from the tree....”

When by the will of God thou wast instructed in divine words, /
The seed of reason was planted in the furrows of thy heart, /
And from this glorious and fertile soil, O blessèd one, /
Grew a harvest that multiplied a hundredfold ///
Truly delighting with grace the hearts of those who faithfully honor thee.

Forsaking all the beauty of this world /
Thou didst seek after the beauty of Christ, the only Lover of mankind; /
Thou didst hasten to be baptized in the font of living waters, /
And quenching thy thirst thou wast consumed with the thirst for martyrdom; /
And eagerly entering into the [brazen] vessel which was then heated by fire ///
Thou didst receive a blessèd repose.

Spurning an earthly bridegroom, O glorious one, /
Thou didst become the pure and chosen bride /
Of Him, born of her who knew no wedlock; /
And having set aright thy mind and clad in the purple of thy blood /
Thou didst enter into eternal glory ///
Wearing the garment of incorruption, O martyr Pelagía.

Glory..., now and ever..., from the Pentecostarion.

The Troparion of the Martyr, in Tone 4:

O Jesus, Thy lamb Pelagía /
Cries out to Thee with great love: /
“O my Bridegroom, I long for Thee in pain, /
I am crucified with Thee, and in baptism buried with Thee; /
I suffer for Thy sake in order to reign with Thee, /
I die for Thee in order to live in Thee. /
Accept me as a spotless victim /
Since I am put to death because of my love for Thee.” ///
Through her prayers, O Merciful One, save our souls.
